Lockdown Escape!

Swanland U3A invite you to a Zoomed afternoon of entertainment on Thursday 20th May featuring Simon Seligman and Fool's Gold.

'Stone walls do not a prison make / Nor Iron Bars A Cage...'

Two lines from a famous 17th Century poem by English poet Richard Lovelace that ring true in 2021.

We have missed so much over the last year because of Coronavirus and three lockdowns but thanks to the u3a there is no need for our minds to be imprisoned!

Swanland u3a has maintained its usual activities through 'Zoom' so we have great pleasure in inviting you to our annual special event for which we can think of no better title than: 'Lockdown Escape!' We have two presentations:

Simon Seligman will talk at 2.15pm on

'A Renaissance in Modern Times: Chatsworth and The Devonshire Collections'. Simon is a speaker of international repute who worked at Chatsworth from 1991-2010 and who will free our minds from lockdown by taking us on an illustrated journey through the unique art collections, architecture and landscapes of Chatsworth House - arguably the most iconic country house in the United Kingdom.

'Fool's Gold' who will perform 'Dark Light' at 4.00pm. Carol and Steve Robson have performed for many u3a's and will present their musical interpretation of the 'Flannan Isle' mystery. Their acoustic music is supported by visuals and every participant can access additional material. Due to their specialist studio and sound equipment, Fool's Gold will host their performance on Zoom thereby improving sound quality and the overall audience experience. Full details and a programme will be sent after registration.

You can exercise your mind by trying to solve the mystery of the disappearing Lighthouse Keepers that has intrigued since 1900!

With Simon and Fool's Gold we are confident that your mind will escape the Lockdown Prison!
